

BLUE RIDGE CHRISTIAN Autumn in the Mountains NOVELIST RETREAT

OCTOBER 19-22, 2014
RIDGECREST CONFERENCE CENTER

October is the peak season for leaf color in the mountains of western North Carolina and the perfect time for novelists to come together for inspiration and improving on the skills and gifts God has made available to us. We suggest that you have a novel in progress or an idea in mind. We'll take it from there!

All novelists are welcome to come and learn the craft that applies to all novel writing. The faculty is Christian and some emphasis will be directed to the CBA market.
